

You are invited to an Open House

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency will be hosting an open house for residents to talk one-on-one with agency representatives about the process involved in connecting homes to the Rockford public water supply.

At the open house, EPA, Illinois EPA, Illinois Department of Public Health, Winnebago County Health Department and Rockford staff will all be available to talk with residents.

The various agency representatives will also be able to answer questions you may have about the actions being taken to determine the source of the ground-water contamination, any potential health risks, as well as the efforts being made to clean up the contaminated water.

We hope you will stop by and talk with us about any questions or concerns you have.

No formal presentations will be given.
